Description

The subject property comprises a handsome period building of brick construction under a pitched tiled roof. Internally it has been extensively fitted out for medical purposes and the ground floor offers a reception, staff room with kitchenette and large treatment room to the front of the property. There is also accessible wcs.

The first floor provides four separate treatment rooms with separate lady and gents wcs. The treatment rooms are typically fitted out with vinyl safe tread flooring, dado trunking for services, suspended ceilings with medical grade recessed strip lighting, extensive air-conditioning with back up radiator heating.

The second floor provides a large staff and storage area and a kitchenette. There is a small basement for additional storage.

Externally the property provides a tarmac covered carpark with up to 9 car spaces.
