Filby Hall, Main Road, Filby, Great Yarmouth, Norfolk NR29 3HN

Filby is an attractive village located approximately 20 miles east of Norwich, and 6 miles north of the seaside town of Great Yarmouth. The property occupies a prominent position on the road connecting Fleggburgh and Caister-on-Sea, placing it at the heart of the village. Filby itself is within the Broads National Park, an area known for its waterways and protected wildlife.

Access to the property is via the A1064 (Main Road), which ensures straightforward connectivity to local amenities and nearby towns. The road links Filby to neighbouring villages and provides a convenient route for reaching both the coastline and the city of Norwich.

Description

The property comprises an 8-bedroom, mid-18th-century Grade II listed hall set within approximately 3.35 hectares (8.28 acres) of private gardens and mature woodland.

Filby Hall has been repurposed in recent years, most recently serving as a children's home. As a result, the configuration has been altered to meet these requirements.

Adjoining the hall are two three-bedroom cottages, which remain as residential dwellings.

To the west of the property lies an additional parcel of land, separated only by a traditional Grade II listed brick garden wall.
