DESCRIPTION

Built in the late 1800's, this quaint two bedroom home is nestled within a row of cottages in the idyllic village of Itteringham, betwixt the historic market towns of Aylsham, Holt and close to the beautiful National Trust estate of Blickling. The village is surrounded by countryside and boasts a village store and coffee shop, along with a pub/restaurant.

The home boasts plenty of charming features including original Norfolk Pamment tiled flooring, a fireplace housing a wood burning stove and timber beams amongst well presented accommodation. To the front is a pretty, established garden with a paved seating area and off road parking.

LOCATION

Itteringham is an idyllic and peaceful village, surrounded by countryside. The village shop has been in the heart of Itteringham since 1637, selling local produce with a deli and coffee shop. There is also a local pub/restaurant.

The nearest market town is Aylsham which lies approximately 5 miles away hosting a range of local amenities, including choice of three supermarkets, doctors and dental surgeries, opticians, independent shops, bakeries and plenty of places to eat and drink. The historic market town of Holt is approximately 10 miles away and also offers a range of amenities, with both towns boasting regular markets. Itteringham is approximately 16 miles North West of the City of Norwich and close to the beautiful National Trust Estate of Blickling Hall.
